These CloudGG Portal Terms of Service (“Terms”) are a legal agreement between Pentanet Limited (ABN 29 617 506 279) of 2/8 Corbusier Place, Balcatta, (“Pentanet”, “we” or “us”) and you, the user of the Portal (“you” or “your”). By accessing or using the CloudGG Portal (“Portal”, “Platform”), you agree to be bound by these Terms.

2. Registration and usage

The Portal is an online platform maintained by Pentanet that enables users to access materials, enter competitions, access services, upload materials, store and manage payments and subscriptions, and send and receive communications. Registrations for the Portal must be completed by persons aged 18 years or older. Registrations for children between the ages of 13 and 18 years require the permission of a parent or legal guardian. Children under the age of 13 cannot register for the Portal. By proceeding to use the Portal, you confirm that you are 18 years of age or older or are under the age of 18 and have your parent/legal guardian’s consent to your registration. If you are under the age of 18 when you create your Account, Pentanet may require you to actively re-confirm your acceptance of these Terms once you have turned 18.

You become a user of the Portal when you create a Portal account (“Account”). You must provide us information that is accurate and complete, and keep that information current for so long as your Account is active. Failure to do so constitutes a breach of the Terms, which may result in immediate suspension or termination of your account.

By creating an Account or using or accessing the Portal, you warrant that you have authority to enter into and to perform your obligations under these Terms of Use, that you will comply with all applicable laws in connection with your use of the Platform, and that you have the ability to perform, and will perform, your obligations under these Terms.

You are responsible for the confidentiality of your Account login and password and for the security of your computer system. You are responsible for any activities or actions under your login and password, and Account. You agree not to disclose your password to any third party. Pentanet is not responsible for the communication and activity that results from use of your login name and password by you, or by any person to whom you may have intentionally or negligently disclosed your login and/or password, or if you leave your Account logged in or save your login and password on a device that is not secured and is able to be accessed by a third party. You must notify us immediately upon becoming aware of any breach of security or unauthorised use of your Account.

3. Permitted use

You must use the Portal and any associated services or links in a lawful manner and must adhere to any rules, regulations and laws that apply to your Portal use. You are responsible for ensuring all content uploaded through the Portal (“Content”) is owned by you, or that you have appropriate permissions to upload third party content, and you represent and warrant that the submission of the Content through the Portal does not and will not infringe the rights, including without limitation, the intellectual property rights, of any person or other third party. Any Content which is reported as or suspected of infringing the intellectual property rights of a third party, or deemed to infringe on the intellectual property rights of a third party may be removed by Pentanet at any time without notice, including in response to a third party request.

By submitting any Content through the Portal, you grant to Pentanet a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free licence to use, reproduce, modify, display, make available (including by sub-licence) and distribute, and otherwise use, exploit and dispose of the Content you have submitted for any purpose and in any media (now known or developed in the future), including but not limited to the extent necessary for Pentanet to provide the Portal to you, the other users affiliated with the Licensee with whom you interact, and its other customers ("Content Licence"). You acknowledge that the Content Licence includes, without limitation, the right to exploit the Content online and in print and digital formats, and you irrevocably consent to the adaptation, reproduction, editing, re-titling, alteration, adding to and/or deleting from, rearrangement, transposing, translation and exploiting of the Content by Pentanet and its sub-licensees for any purpose and in any media (now known or developed in the future) including but not limited to the reproduction, publication, communication to the public and adaptation of the Content and any works derived therefrom. For the avoidance of doubt, you further acknowledge and agree that the Content Licence will continue in perpetuity notwithstanding the fact that Content you display, post, upload onto, publish or otherwise submit in your use of the Portal may be removed or deleted by you, in your sole discretion. Any rights (including intellectual property rights) in any adaptation, reproduction, editing, re-titling, alteration, adding to and/or deleting from, rearrangement, transposing, translation and exploiting of the Content by Pentanet will be owned solely and exclusively by Pentanet/its nominee, and you acknowledge and agree that you have no claim or entitlement to any such rights or items.

You must not use the Portal and any associated services or links in a manner which interferes with the operation of the Portal, or tampers with the execution of the Portal or any related services or links. You must not use or access the Portal for purposes which are unlawful, illegal or prohibited, including but not limited to the following:

- (a) activities that are criminal or otherwise illegal in nature, including but not limited to fraud, harassment, spamming and infringement of intellectual property rights;
- (b) commercial advertising and soliciting activities;
- (c) activities that are automated uses of the Portal, other than those included as part of the Portal's functionality;
- (d) activities that involve impersonation of another user of the Platform or any other person or entity; or
- (e) activities that involve using the Platform in a manner that is contrary to these Terms of Use or inconsistent with any applicable laws and regulations.

Any user conduct which is reasonably suspected to be illegal or in breach of these Terms may result in the immediate suspension, termination or modification of the associated user Account.

4. Conduct standards

Transmitting Content or communicating in a way which we reasonably believe to be offensive to other users, including Content or language that may be considered unlawful, harmful, threatening, abusive, vulgar, obscene, sexually explicit, or racially or ethically objectionable, or is otherwise objectionable is unacceptable. Any user found to be violating these communication expectations may have Account restrictions applied. Serious or repeated violations may result in immediate Account termination.

Additional terms and conditions may apply to the GFN beta trial, and must be accepted as a condition of participation.
